SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA COLLEGE OF OPTOMETRY

The Value of Endowments

A program that encourages the establishment or support of an endowment fund is invaluable to any charitable organization fortunate enough to have one. SCCO is such an organization — blessed with donors who have the wisdom and foresight to establish or contribute to a fund that will continue to support the College in perpetuity.

Whether one's passion is assisting students, enhancing the academic program, providing support for research, or expressing gratitude an endowment will provide funding forever. Yes, forever.

At SCCO an endowment is established at the $25,000 level. The money is invested and remains with the College forever and it's the annual earnings of each fund from which financial support is generated for the donor's designated area.

The value of an endowment program to a qualifying charitable organization is that it allows for the initiation or enhancement of programs without utilizing funds from the general operating budget thereby, maximizing these precious dollars. At SCCO, tuition represents less than 48 percent of the total operating revenue. The balance of operating revenues includes contributions from individuals, alumni, corporations and foundations as well as income from endowments, investments, continuing education programs and College vision-care centers. Endowments also help the College because they help our students to have less educational debt.

AN ENDOWMENT PROVIDES THE FUNDING TO ACQUIRE, PRESERVE AND MAKE ACCESSIBLE AN EDUCATION AT SCCO.

Annually, 10 students receive financial assistance from the Alumni Association of SCCO. The $1,000 scholarships are provided via an endowment that was established in 1979 to honor, Leslie W. Scown, O.D., a faculty member at the College from 1923–54. As with all scholarships for students the value of the Alumni Association scholarship is applied directly to each recipient's educational expenses at SCCO thereby, helping each student lessen his or her educational debt.

As of June 30, the value of the Alumni Association Endowment was $219,290. This endowment continues to grow from the addition of "Life Members" to the College's Alumni Association. All graduates are members of the Alumni Association; however, "Life Members" make a one-time gift of $500 to join this group with proceeds supporting the endowment.

AN ENDOWMENT HONORS STUDENT EXCELLENCE IN DIDACTIC AND/OR CLINICAL PERFORMANCE.

Among the many accolades and gifts presented to retiring SCCO President Les Walls, O.D., M.D., D.O.S., was something that will assist students in perpetuity. The long-established award for the valedictorian was endowed in 2007–08 and renamed to honor Dr. Walls thanks to the generosity of faculty, alumni, friends and colleagues who chose to honor his love of teaching in this most meaningful way.

This fully endowed award, the Dr. Lesley L. Walls Endowed Valedictorian Award, like the 63 others the College is fortunate to count among its investments, will continue forever. The award is presented to the graduating student who has attained the highest cumulative grade point average while at the College. The Valedictorian for the Class of 2008 was, Tawny Kaeochinda Walrath, O.D., from Azusa, CA.

The endowment is funded at $25,200 as of June 30.

Endowed scholarships and awards provided more than $211,830 to the College in 2007–08 with more than 90 percent of that amount funding financial support for students. Pictured are August 2007 recipients of $1,000 scholarships from the Alumni Association of SCCO Endowment. They are back row (l-r): Bruce Nguyen, '11; Nicole Feldman, '09; Hieu Doan, '11 and VP and Dean of Academic Affairs Morris S. Berman, O.D., M.S. Front row (l-r): Joyce Chen, '10 and Heidi Peterson, '10.

AN ENDOWMENT ENCOURAGES, SUSTAINS AND ADVANCES THE PROFESSION VIA ONGOING RESEARCH ACTIVITIES.

The stature of faculty research was greatly enhanced thanks to the generosity of the family of Richard P. Hemenger, Ph.D., O.D., a beloved professor of students and alumni. Following his death a gift of more than $121,000 was provided to the College to fund the Dr. Richard P. Hemenger Faculty Research Endowment. Since its establishment in 2001, the endowment has provided seven faculty members with funding for research projects in a number of vision care areas including keratoconus, myopia, amblyopia, convergence insufficiency, genetic mutation affecting the retina and optic nerve, dyslexia, ocular surface disease, dry eye, and mechanisms of accommodations measured in the human eye.

The value of the endowment now stands at $162,400 an increase of 33 percent in seven years.

AN ENDOWMENT CREATES A LEGACY AND CELEBRATES THE MEMORY OF A LOVED ONE.

The invaluable contributions of Doris J. Caldwell are celebrated at two special SCCO events. Doris worked 17 years at the College — 13 of those years as administrative assistant to the president, Richard L. Hopping, O.D., D.O.S.

Celebrate SCCO, an annual event acknowledging the many accomplishments of members of the College Family, was held June 20. Funds to support the lunchtime barbeque are provided by an endowment established in memory of long-time Administrative Assistant Doris Caldwell. Enjoying the festivities were Cindy Wang, '10 and SCCO Director of Admissions Jane Ann Munroe, O.D., '77.

Important vision care research has been funded through the Dr. Richard P. Hemenger Faculty Research Endowment. The 2007–08 recipient of funds from this endowment was Assistant Professor Lawrence R. Stark, Ph.D. His research interests are primarily in mechanisms of accommodations measured in the human eye. Dr. Stark, who teaches Ocular Motility, is standing in front of scale models of the eye created by his students to show the six muscles that control the movement of the human eye.

She died in 1995 after a long and courageous battle against cancer. At that time, her family requested that in lieu of flowers that contributions be made to the College in her name. The outpouring of generosity from her colleagues, friends and family would eventually lead to the establishment of an endowment. The value of the endowment as of June 30, 2008 was $25,700.

Today, the endowment that bears her name funds the Annual Staff Appreciation Breakfast to recognize the contributions made by support staff members to the success of the College. It also funds Celebrate SCCO — a yearly gathering of the entire College Community to acknowledge the spirit of teamwork so richly demonstrated by students, faculty, staff and administrators.

IN APPRECIATION

Members of the College Community are grateful to alumni and friends who have committed to care for SCCO in perpetuity through establishing or contributing to an endowment fund. Their thoughtful and generous gifts to the College's endowment program continue to grow and enhance didactic and clinical programs and on-going research activities. On a personal side an endowment serves to memorialize a loved one or colleague for all time. An endowment also ensures that the donor's legacy of good at SCCO will endure for generations.

DONORS OF COMMEMORATIVE DISTINCTION

Commemorative recognition is awarded to those donors whose direct cumulative financial support of the institution exceeds $25,000.

ENDOWMENT FUNDS

Endowment Funds at the College have been established by alumni and friends to support scholarships, student loans, research, and other special programs and activities.

An endowment fund, once established, continues in perpetuity with the income from the fund providing support for the area/activity specified by the donor. Fully endowed funds are established at the $25,000 level or above. For specific opportunities, please contact Bill Heaton, Vice President of Advancement, 714.449.7464.

Endowment Funds offer unique ways for individuals and groups to recognize achievement and distinction in special areas.

A group of SCCO alumni has provided financial support for many years to provide scholarships for students of African-American heritage. Their efforts have culminated in endowing a fund from which scholarships are presented to entering fourth-year students who have financial need. In August 2007, Alumnus Terre Watson, O.D., '86 (far left), joined Dr. Les Walls, SCCO president, to present two $500 scholarships to members of the Class of 2008 Alexis D. Charles (second from left) and Ja'Nai X. Tellis.

ANNUAL FUND CHAIR, 2007-08

Dr. Ann Johannsen, '82, loves her profession and is unabashedly proud to be an alumnus of SCCO. Her associate is a 1990 graduate and a niece is a 2008 graduate. Ann was President of the SCCO Alumni Association, 1996–99, and hosted the first Evening with President Walls in 2003 at her home in the hills of Claremont, CA. She is a member of the prestigious Council of Regents, an alumni advisory group to the President of the College. In addition, Ann is the current President of the Inland Empire Optometric Society and presently serves on several boards of directors, including that of the Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic. The College is most appreciative of Ann's wholehearted support of the profession of optometry and her tenure as Chair of the Annual Fund, 2007–08.

THE DR. LESLEY L. WALLS TRIBUTE FUND

To acknowledge his years of outstanding service to the College and the profession of optometry, friends and colleagues contributed to a fund honoring Dr. Walls on the occasion of his retirement. Proceeds of the tribute fund were applied toward the award that honors the top academic student in each year's graduating class. Happily, the funding fully endowed what has now been renamed the Dr. Lesley L. Walls Endowed Valedictorian Award. Supporters of the tribute fund included:

WAYS OF GIVING

Benefactors support the College and its mission for many reasons. Motivations are varied. The inspiration to give may be to salute one's Alma Mater, spring from a reverence for the gift of sight, reflect a stirring belief in education, or from a humble appreciation for the optometric profession.

Voluntary support of non-profits, like the College, is actively encouraged by federal tax laws. The laws generously reward those individuals who make charitable contributions.

OUTRIGHT GIFTS

To some donors, outright gifts are preferred. These gifts may take the form of cash, marketable securities, real or personal property.

The advantage of an outright gift is an immediate enjoyment of the purpose for which the gift was intended and a full value tax deduction.

Securities and real estate that have appreciated in value make ideal outright gifts because the donor foregoes the capital gain tax altogether, yet is able to deduct the full fair market value of the gift.

BEQUESTS*

An alumnus or friend may leave cash, securities or real estate, by will, to the College. The value of this type of legacy is deducted from estate taxes.

LIFE INCOME GIFTS

Charitable Remainder Trusts*
(unitrusts and annuities)

A donor transfers property (cash, securities, real estate) to a trustee and the donor receives an income each year, the amount and term determined by the type of trust established. Eventually, the principal in the trust passes to the College. This legacy may be used as a named chair or program endowment.

POOLED INCOME FUND*

A donor may elect to invest in the College's pooled income fund. Gifts from a number of donors are "pooled" together in a trust fund.

Income from this fund is paid to the donors each year based upon the fund's annual performance.

MATCHING GIFTS

Many corporations have chosen this method of supporting education at professional schools. The company will match any gift you make — sometimes on a 2-1 or 3-1 basis.

UNITED WAY

The College may be designated as the recipient of your United Way contribution. Simply list the school's name and address on your donor sign-up sheet.

MEMORIAL AND HONORARY GIFTS

Memorial and honorary gifts are given in memory of a friend or family member, or in recognition of a birthday, graduation, anniversary, or other significant event.

RESIDENCE

A donor can make a gift of a residence to the College and still retain use of the property for his or her lifetime or that of another beneficiary. An outright gift of residence qualifies for a charitable income tax deduction computed in the same way as securities.

PERSONALIZED PROGRAMS

The College provides a range of services to assist prospective donors in realizing their objectives in giving through a variety of vehicles (bequests, trusts, life insurance, Individual Retirement Accounts and annuities) covering all types of assets (cash, securities, personal and real property), while at the same time conserving the family's inheritance.

OUR FOCUS

Next to life itself,
God's most precious gift is sight,
And to the ministry of this great gift,
The profession of optometry dedicates itself.

OUR VISION

Enhancing the quality of life through vision care

OUR INSPIRATION

Good vision is more than seeing 20/20...it is seeing without effort.

On the Cover: To celebrate the 11-year tenure of SCCO President Les Walls, O.D., M.D., D.O.S., two SCCO Administrators, who are accomplished quilters, created the quilt "Celebrate." SCCO Vice President of Student Affairs Lorraine I. Voorhees, O.D., M.S., '71, pieced the quilt and Director of Admissions Jane Ann Munroe, O.D., '77, did the custom machine quilting. The purple and gold colors selected reflect the traditional colors of the College and the aqua color represents the color for the profession of optometry. A donation to the Dr. Les Walls Tribute Fund earned the donor a chance to win the quilt. The winner was Associate Dean for Clinical Education Julie A. Schornack, O.D., M.Ed.
